

27th National Congress on Rural Education in Canada,
on-line discussion, on 27th of March, 2022

The University of Saskatchewan (USask) International Office is pleased to invite you to the 27th National Congress on Rural Education in Canada, with the theme of Rural Education for a Sustainable Future. You may be aware of our USask People Around the World (PAW) initiative—this year we are thrilled to partner with the National Congress to advance sustainable education through national and global perspectives!

The 27th Congress will be hybrid (in-person and/or virtual) and will be broadcast through the Zoom platform on March 27-28, 2022. The event includes dynamic keynote speakers and several panels (including from international presenters), in the area of rural and remote education. The Congress will highlight global perspectives on rural and remote education and sustainability research, and engender exciting discussions between educators, school and system leaders, parents, community members, and researchers.

The deadline for the Call for Presentations (CFP) at National Congress on Rural Education in Canada 2022 has been extended to February 23, 2022.

On behalf of Dr. Dawn Wallin, Director, National Congress on Rural Education in Canada 2022, and Dr. Meghna Ramaswamy, Director, International Office, we would like to thank you for considering this opportunity to present and participate in this event.
